

Do You Want The Most Money For Your House?

It's common for a buyer to look at a home and when they see work that needs done they estimate the cost of doing it at about double what it really would cost. Then when making an offer they have devalued the home more than it should be. "Shiny" usually equates to new and fresh in people's minds, so when they see a fresh coat of paint or varnish it helps to give the buyer a higher perceived value. A high quality paint job and properly placed and coordinated furniture and décor can increase the value of your home which is why...
